NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief.

What a fortunate provision of nature it is that deprives the rose of mental suffering; for how poignant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable inter-house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the years gone by falling hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbro's Herpicide absolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists. Send for stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

The Moroccan Affair.

A dispatch from Algiers, Spain, says that the confidential exchanges now going on among the representatives of the powers in the Moroccan conference disclose the extreme difficulty of arranging an agreement that both France and Germany would accept.

The German delegates put forward the attractive principle of disinterestedness and equal privileges for all countries. The French delegates, on the other hand, maintain that France cannot be disinterested. They affirm that having followed an active policy in Morocco for eight years, and having obtained numerous advantages, France should not now be asked to take the same position as all the rest of the world.

France virtually enunciates a modified form of the principle of the Monroe doctrine in northwest Africa. She has acquired and holds a position toward Morocco that, according to her view, makes equal political influence with other powers impossible. On the question of economic equality she says "yes," but on that of political equality she answers "no."

Germany insists on political equality with even more tenacity than she does on the question of economic equality.

The real struggle, however, is over the political future of Morocco. France would rather withdraw from the conference than tie up the political destiny of Morocco by international control. While this is not an authoritative official utterance it unmistakably represents the feelings of the French delegation.

France refuses to be excluded from what she holds to be the legitimate expansion of her influence in northern Africa.

The French delegates appear to realize that the current of the conference is against them because neutral powers, such as the United States, lean toward the idea of disinterested equality rather than toward France's special geographical and historical paramountcy.

France, therefore, may strive for a negative result, so far as political questions go, accepting fully a commercial equality and joining in the effort to reach just economic conclusions, but resisting suggestions for the internationalization of any of the public services of Morocco.

Germany will press for the internationalization of the police. It should be understood that this question of police does not refer to the ordinary force for the maintenance of local order, but, in the larger sense, to the semi-military body which is to exercise a powerful general control.

France still counts upon Great Britain, Russia, Spain and Portugal, but her earliest hopes, that the United States would be with her, are beginning to diminish.

Germany believes that her view as to international control has been accepted in principle by the United States, Austria and Sweden.

The position of Italy is one of uncommon perplexity. Italy naturally inclines toward equality of privileges, and, besides, she is the ally of Germany; yet, according to her secret agreement with France in 1902, Italy gave up to the latter country all her claims in Morocco. France expects Italy, in consequence of this agreement, to side with her, but Italy hesitates.

Belgium is noncommittal through fear that either France or Germany will raise the Congo question into an international issue after the conference if either should consider itself offended.

Fire in Norfolk.

The combined efforts early yesterday morning of a fleet of harbor tugs, the city fire department and the employees of Rodgers, McCabe & Co., representing the International Compress Company, held within $100,000 the damage resulting from the fire that threatened destruction to cotton and warehouse property in Atlantic City ward, Norfolk, valued in the neighborhood of $3,000,000. One life was lost in the conflagration, Jacob Jacobs, a band-strapper, falling a victim of the flames while asleep in the galvanized structure that housed the big cotton press.

The fire, which started shortly after 3 o'clock, is supposed to have caught from crossed electric light wiring, burned the immense shed of the Compress Company. About 3,000 bales of cotton were in the fire, and the principal loss extends to that item. The giant piece of mechanism known as the compress, valued at about $30,000, was red hot when the fire was under control, and it will take sometime to repair it.

A north wind on the other hand and a high wall on the other saved the other property with which the fierce fire would easily have communicated under other conditions. The great plant of the Norfolk Warehouse Association, containing thousands of bales of cotton, and with its contents valued at more than $1,000,000, was saved only by the favorable wind. The loss, as estimated by owners of the burned compress and cotton, will aggregate about $100,000 unless it is later found that the compress is not seriously damaged. The number of bales of cotton affected by the fire is 2,600. "This cotton was damaged about 60 per cent.," said Mr. Rodgers

Mayor Objects to Pictures.

Mayor Carlton McCarthy, of Richmond, yesterday morning was denied the privilege in the Police Court of instructing the court to send Frank Ferandini to jail indefinitely for owing and operating the penny arcade on Broad street. The new amusement place was alleged by the municipal executive to have contained electrically illuminated vitascope photograph machines containing pictures of a nature tending to corrupt the morals of the youth. The mayor acknowledged under examination that what aroused him more than the pictures was the crowd of negroes infesting the place on the occasion of his visit. It was testified that the pictures on cigar boxes and souvenir post cards were far more objectionable than those on exhibition in the penny arcade. One picture which especially displeased the mayor was a park scene, in which two lovers were portrayed kissing each other. After the witnesses had been examined, the justice, Judge Crutchfield, accompanied by the commonwealth's attorney and a minister of the gospel, made a solemn inspection of the pictures on exhibition, it being the intention of the justice to get the ideas of the minister before forming his decision. He will render his decision today.

To Put Unfortunates to Death.

A dispatch to the Chicago Tribune from Columbia, O., says: "Painless death for pain racked sufferers who have no chance for recovery, and who desire to live no longer, will be possible if the bill introduced Tuesday in the general assembly of Ohio is passed. If the proposed measure becomes a law persons suffering from incurable diseases or from injuries from which there is no hope of recovery may be legally chloroformed to death or killed in any other painless way which physicians may design. Under the provision of the bill a person of sound mind, who is sick unto death and who is suffering unbearable agony, can ask a physician to administer an anesthetic until the patient loses consciousness and dies. The physician must submit with three other physicians before administering the drug, and also must admonish the patient that certain death is to follow. The physician, after death ensues, must notify the coroner of all the facts of the death in signed statements."

The Diamond Cure.

The latest news from Paris, is, that they have discovered a diamond cure for consumption. If you fear consumption or pneumonia, it will, however, be best for you to take that great remedy mentioned by W. T. McGee, of Vaneer, Tenn. "I had a cough for four years. Nothing helped me until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which gave instant relief and affected a permanent cure." Use equal quick cure for Throat and Lung Troubles. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; price 50c aue $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best.

"In my opinion Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best made for colds," says Mrs. Cora Walker, of Potomac, California. There is no doubt about its being the best. No other will cure a cold so quickly. No other is so sure a preventive of pneumonia. No other is so pleasant and safe to take. These are good reasons why it should be preferred to any other. The fact is that few people are satisfied with any other after having once used this remedy. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.
